what is fun about the hollywood version of girlhood through re evaluating notions of pleasure and fun the aesthetic pleasures of girl teen film forms a study of hollywood girl teen films between 2000 2010 by tracing the aesthetic connections between films such as mean girls waters 2004 hairspray shankman 2007 and easy a gluck

2010 the book articulates the specific types of pleasure these films offer as a means to understand how hollywood creates gendered ideas of fun rather than condemn these films as guilty pleasures this book sets out to understand how they are designed to create experiences that feel as though they express desires memories or fantasies that girls supposedly share in common providing a practical model for a new approach to cinematic pleasures the aesthetic pleasures of girl teen film proposes that these films offer a limited version of girlhood that feels like potential and promise but is restricted within prescribed parameters this book provides an insight into girls cultural identities and young femininities through an understanding of tween girls dressing in singapore the book adopts a girl centred approach to shed light on the narratives and experiences of young singaporean girls that have often been overlooked it draws on the conversations with young singaporean girls aged 8 to 12 to understand how they wanted to dress from where they gained their inspiration and what the social factors were that influenced their dressing through understanding how girls want to fashion themselves the book shows that it is imprecise to discuss issues based on the assumption that there is one dominant correct way to grow up as a young person in singapore this book unpacks how young singaporean girls negotiate their cultural identities through clothing that do not simply conform to or reflect their roles as students it also shows how girlhood in singapore is multi faceted and the values and meanings that tween girls attach to their dressing intersect at the personal social and cultural level the book offers new ways of approaching and looking at girls adult like dressing that move beyond the discourse of sexualisation in establishing a space for young singaporean girls voices in an area that has been dominated by studies from the west this book also shows how the focus on tween girls in asia can contribute to and advance the current state of girls studies from the precocious charms of shirley temple to the box office behemoth frozen and its two young female leads anna and elsa the girl has long been a figure of fascination for cinema the symbol of imagined childhood innocence the site of intrigue and nostalgia for adults a metaphor for the precarious nature of subjectivity itself the girl is caught between infancy and adulthood between objectification and power she speaks to many strands of interest for film studies feminist questions of cinematic representation of female subjects historical accounts of shifting images of girls and childhood in the cinema and philosophical engagements with the possibilities for the subject in film this collection considers the specificity of girls experiences and their cinematic articulation through a multicultural feminist lens which cuts across the divides of popular art house western non western and north south drawing on examples from north and south america asia africa and europe the contributors bring a new understanding of the global local nature of girlhood and its relation to contemporary phenomena such as post feminism neoliberalism and queer subcultures containing work by established and emerging scholars this volume explodes the narrow post feminist canon and expands existing geographical ethnic and historical accounts of cinematic cultures and girlhood
